

दिनांक: 14 / 10 / 2022

For Publication

Chief Minister's education advisor held brainstorming session to make Gorakhpur a hub of multidisciplinary education

Gorakhpur: Education Advisor to the Chief Minister of Uttar Pradesh Yogi Adityanath

Professor DP Singh held a high&level meeting with Vice Chancellors of four universities] Director of AIIMS] Director of ICMR&Regional Medical Research Center and Principal of BRD Medical College in Gorakhpur today- At the meeting] Former UGC chairman Prof D P Singh discussed making Gorakhpur a multidisciplinary education hub as per the directive of CM Yogi Adityanath-

This is the second meeting chaired by the Education Advisor to the Chief Minister- The important meeting was attended by Deendayal Upadhyay Gorakhpur University Vice Chancellor Prof- Rajesh Singh] Mahayogi Guru Gorakhnath Ayush University Vice Chancellor Prof AK Singh] Mahayogi Gorakhnath University Vice Chancellor Major General ¼R½ Atul Bajpai] Madan Mohan Malviya Technical University Vice Chancellor Prof- JP Pandey And Surekha Kishore] Director] AIIMS Gorakhpur] Dr- Rajneesh Srivastava] Director] ICMR&Regional Medical Research Center and Dr- Ganesh Prasad] Principal of BRD Medical College-

Focus on quality research and developing research culture

Prof DP Singh emphasized on promoting the culture of research in Purvanchal- The universities and colleges of the area should focus on quality research-

Education Advisor to the Chief Minister said that the Research Development Cell should be constituted in every university and college as per the guidelines of the UGC- Five committees should also be constituted under the leadership of the Director to run the RDC-

Prof D P Singh said that the cell should work to promote quality research] which should contribute meaningfully towards the goal of self&reliant India as envisaged in the new education policy- Deendayal Upadhyay Gorakhpur University has constituted a research development cell-

Attract international students and students from other states

The meeting also discussed the ways to attract international students as well as student from other states- The focus is on attracting students from SAARC countries- A common portal for admission and placement of international students will be developed- DDU Gorakhpur University is constructing an international hostel for these students-

The meeting also discussed the ways to increase communication between universities and between colleges- So that Gorakhpur can be developed as a multidisciplinary education hub-

An engineering university] a private university and a public university located in Gorakhpur can come together to present an eÛemplary model of a public&private&partnership in the field of education- Deendayal Upadhyay Gorakhpur University can play a leading role in this-

There are four universities] AIIMS and medical colleges in Gorakhpur in the field of Humanities] Basic Science] Engineering] Medicine] Paramedic] Ayurveda and Veterinary etc- DDU Gorakhpur University can help other institutions in Basic Science-

Education Advisor to the Chief Minister will address the National Seminar 'National Education Policy and its Implementation' organized under the joint aegis of Maharana Pratap Mahavidyalaya] Jungle Dhusad] Gorakhpur and Uttar Pradesh Hindi Sansthan as chief guest on Saturday-

Mahendra Kumar Singh
Media and Public Relations Officer
Deen Dayal Upadhyaya Gorakhpur
University, Gorakhpur